The Democratic Primary.

The vote for Railroad Commissioner in the county was as follows: Cansler, 300: Earle, 1,249: Evans, 465: Garris, 867: Gignilliat, 2,239; Mobley, 552. The second race for Railroad Commissioner will be between Messrs, Larle and Mobley.

The members of the Legislature thosen in the first primary are Messrs. Ashley, Prince, Tribble and Watson. For the fifth place J. C. Milford and J.

A. Hall will make a second race. The number of candidates for Coromer will certainly prevent an election next Tuesday, and so a third primary will be necessary to make a choice.

Borrible Death of a Little Girl.

Lizzie Abercrombie, the six-year-old diaughter of Louis E. Abercrombie, who lives in Centerville Township, a tiew miles west of the city, met a horri-ble death last Wednesday. Her father left home in the morning with a load of watermelons for the market here, and carried several children a part of the way to school. When the children were getting out of the wagon near the school, a part of the harness on one of the mules was seen to be out of place, and Mr. Abercrombie got out to fix it. The team started off suddenly and the little girl was caught under the wheel. The wagon passed over hier chest, and her screams attracted the attention of the father, who ran to ther. She got up and walked towards him, when he picked her up and saw that she was fatally hurt. Dr. J. C. Marris was hastily summoned to her side, but she was beyond human aid and in a short time death relieved her of her terrible suffering. On Thursday the remains were interred at Prospect Church, Rev. W. B. Hawkins conducting the funeral services at the home of the deceased. The accident, of course, was a great shock to the devoted parents, who, in their sore bereavement, have the sympathy of all their friends.

Death of Coroner Banister.

Coroner N. F. Banister died at his thome at the Anderson cotton mills last "Fhursday morning, after a long illness with consumption. The deceased was 48 years of age, and a son of the last James Banister, of the Storeville section. In his childhood he was afflicted with a peculiar disease, which settled in his legs, making him a cripple and causing him to use crutches the remainder of his life. In his young granhood he married a Miss Crawford. conanhood he married a Miss Crawford, of Lowndesville, who, with six daughters and two little sons, survives him. He was a most worthy, upright citizen, and very popular among his many friends and consistences. friends and acquaintances. Four years ago he was elected Coroner of Anderson County, and in the recent primary was renominated for the same posi-cion. On account of his illness he was enst able to make a canvass of the county, but he defeated his opponent y a big majority On Friday morning, after a brief funeral service, his memains were interred in Silver Brook cemetery by the side of two children, who had preceded him to the grave some months ago.

was patient and hopeful to a degree that robbed illness of its terror, but joyous in resignation on the ascending beams of the morning her spirit arose beams of the morning her spirit arose to that city which hath no need of the sun and where God shall wipe away all tears from her eyes. She was 57 years old, possessed until the last of a sound, vigorous mind, an active and original intellect and the evidence of a religious individuality that bore her across the shadows of death with fortitude. Forty-five of the first years of her life she gave to the Baptist community of Mountain Springs, the latter 12 years she devoted to the interest of Pisgah. She was well and popularly known among the older and rising tamilies of Brushy Creek and surrounding settlements, and will long be missed as a woman of culture and refinement.

Mrs. Long was the daughter of Thomas B. Moore, deceased. She leaves to revere her memory her husband and seven children, five of whom are married. John G. Mobley for Railroad Commissioner

The Railroad Commission has become an office of importance. Recognizing this, we nominate John Glover Mobley, of Fairfield County, for Railroad Commissioner. He is a lawyer by education, and has been admitted to the Bar of our State. For a number of years he has been engaged in farming the Bar of our State. For a number of years he has been engaged in farming and dairy husbandry, and has done much to improve the breeding of horses and dairy cattle. He is a practical farmer, thoroughly in sympathy with the agricultural interests, manufacturing and the development of our resources along the lines of industry. resources along the lines of industry. He has been conspicuous for his public spirit and untiring energy. Although a mere boy in '76, he rendered most efficient services to the Democratic party when redisciplinaries. party when radical misrule was over-thrown and white supremacy estab thrown and white supremacy established. He has always taken an active part in politics, and has ever regarded the interest of a friend as his own. He is a member of the military of the State, has been connected with the service for many years. He is a Director of the State Agricultural and Mechanical Society. chanical Society, and has held that po-sition for fourteen years. He is also President of the South Carolina Live Stock and Dairyman's Association. In the Legislature, his ability and Pnowl-edge of the law and his fairness were well displayed; always courteous, but determined in his support of the right. In recognition of his worth, the Leg-islature made him a Director of the l'à recognition of his worth, the Legislature made him a Director of the State Penitentiary almost unanimously. He was a candidate in the last election for Railroad Commissioner, and received a most handsome vote, being third in the race of ten candidates. At its next session the Legislature re-elected him a Director of the State Penitentiary for the second time by an almost unanimous vote. Cap-State Penitentiary for the second time by an almost unanimous vote. Captain Mobley possesses the golden art of making friends. Courteous in manner, and firm in his character, he would make a popular, as well as a most capable official. He would study the problem of transportation, and do justice without fear or favor. The splendid vote he received in the last election for Railroad Commissioner warrants his friends in again placing his name in nomination and respectfully submitting his qualifications and his preeminent fitness for the office to the people of the State.
